

Introducing...

Pencil Magazine
Founder Sasha Wizansky

He had "ten minutes to give her; ten mere minutes which he yet placed at her service in a manner that she admired still more than she could meet it: so crystal-clean the great empty cup of attention that he set between them on the table."

(Henry James, The Wings of the Dove, 1902)

WARM-UP

What you will need:

- A graphite pencil
- A cup - any cup!
- Printer paper (A4 or 8.5*11") folded into quarters

WARM-UP

With your graphite pencil,

DRAW

your "crystal-clean, great empty cup"
(2 min)

WARM-UP

With your graphite pencil,

DRAW

your "crystal-clean, great empty cup"
(2 min)

Then take a clear, well-lit picture and send to <peter@sustainedattention.net>